

• Karen Ward Scalzi OMG Sandy where did you get this?????

•

• Sandy Dipper Karen, it's on the 2nd grade picture that came in a little album. You open it and there's a picture of the school, the teachers are in black and white on the back of the school picture, then facing is the actual color photo that can be removed.

•

• Carey DeGeer Mr. Mickle!

•

• Karen Ward Scalzi Wasn't Anne Kauffman in ALL the school photos from the 1700's on?

•

• Phyllis Huberty Livengood wow, that is funny. Look at those hairdos and outfits. Pretty snazzy for those young professionals. ; )

•

• Sandy Dipper Karen, Anne Kauffman was teaching 1st grade when my parents were attending but she was out on leave having a baby! She always had good stuff on Halloween!

2

•

• Sandy Dipper Carey, I have a story about Mr Mickle. My brother always drew boats. First Mickle said it was wrong without a porthole. My brother tried to explain not all boats had portholes. Mickle eventually insisted my brother draw a city. Jamie drew a city... with a car towing a BOAT!!! My brother is now a Naval Architect, Seakeeping Division with the US NAVY.

• Karen Ward Scalzi Irene Ferrara my favorite teacher ever!
I mourned her loss as I did my own father. She was so insightful despite my own poor behavior.

•

Bob Thomas I was lucky enough to have Mrs. Ferrara, too. She shared lots of stories about her son Raymond (?) and daughter, too.

1

Mary Schweigart Seltzer Sandy Dunn volunteered where I teach. She walked in the door and our curriculum head introduced her as Sandy. I had a hard time NOT calling her Mrs. Dunn.

1

Mary Schweigart Seltzer Mrs. Kaufman used to turn us over her knee and gave us a spanking on our birthday.
