North Catholic High Beats Roman Catholic; Burrs Brush Aside Sallies

FALCONS' 1ST PERIOD ATTACK TURNS TRICK

North Catholic Scores 18 Points in Opening Period and Catholic High Never Catches Up: Ioe Keenan Scores Losers' First Touchdown of Fall

An irresistible atack during the first half won North Catholic its first Catholic High League victory of the season when the Cardinal and White Falcons defeated Roman Catholic High, 25-6, in an exciting game played before 3000 rooters, in the Phillies Ball Park, yesterday af-

Although Catholic's defeat was Although Catholic's defeat was somewhat expected, the Purple and Gold rooters had expectations of seeing the Broad and Vine eleven put up a stronger fight. However, the only satisfaction that they gained was seeing the Cahillites score its first touchdown of the seeon when Joe Keenan plunged when Joe Keenan plunged cross the opponents' goal from the

On the other hand the Falcons ved far superior to their Cathoproved the competitors. In the first period the Cardinal and White tallied three touchdowns and then finished the opening half by the palance of their seven points in the econd quarter. Eddie Schwop was the first memen he rounded left end at midfeld and ran 50 yards for a touch-The extra point was missed McGeary. A short time later Billy Tranausky advanced the score to 12 points when he intercepted Joe Keenan's pass on Catholic's 25-yard line and an for a touchdown. The third 6then plunged through the centre of the first quarter was cored when Schwop shot a forward down. The extra point was missed by Keenan when the ball went wide.

After the start of the second personnel of the line for the team's first touchdown. The extra point was missed by Keenan when the ball went wide.

The second half took off with North Catholic kicking off to the iod North Catholic staged its first opponents'

The Lineup

Catholic H.	Pos.	N.	Catho	lie H.
Shanshan	Left i	nd	No. W. andrews	Welvis
Kuber	Left ta	rkle.		Barry
McSoriev	Left	baner	1 4 2	White
Campbell	Cent	P.F.		Mueray
Echela	Right .	bearing	12	ald smith
Toth	Right to	ckle		Ma Imax
Jennings	Right	and		Buckley
KenneyQ	ra et webm	P		Marie Mary
Wang	oft half	tonath.		aicoeary
Lenzi	light ha	Dack.	4.11	conseman
Haban	West Her	TOHER	124 A	Lugunner
Haban	Fundack	TO KAR A	Parel	Schwab
Catholic	WHEN PERSON	0.0	47 4	1 0- 6
North Catholic		. 18	N 1	0-25
Touchdowns	Schwab;	Mrs	eary:	Tranau.
aky 2; Kennat	n. Poin	t afte	r four	bdown - McGeary, Sub
my: McCoy for	Lenzi; S	Hivan	for 8	ounaban:
Howlet for Sch	awab. 1	tefere	-Ete	rtz. I'm Desmond

its best offense of the game when McCoy was sent in at right halfback in place of Lenzi. The ball at this time was resting on the Cahilites' 49-yard line in their posses-

On the next play McCoy carried the ball and with the assistance of ber of the North Catholic team to some fine interference he scampered around left end and went to North Catholic's 16-yard line before being stopped. To make the situapenalized 15 yards for unnecessary roughness, placing the ball on the Northeast's 1-yard line.

Keenan, who was filling the quarterback position for Kenny, then plunged through the centre of

The second half took off with North Catholic kicking off to the opponents' 5-yard line. Wang rch. Tranausky finished by scooped up the ball from the ground anging a cross the goal line from and advanced it to the 10-yard line. scooped up the ball from the ground he one-yard stripe.

Following this, Catholic showed Northeast tacklers.

DRAGON FRESHMEN

and Bolig Gleams for Victors, 19-0 on next week at Cornwall, N.

Tighe, a Pedricktown th, and Captain Roy Bolig were ig guns in today's offensive, these rly backs ripping through the Drexel line for long gains, although work of the forwards in openholes cannot be left unmen-

The first touchdown came after utes of play chiefly through he work of Tighe and Bolig. Dave itten, a Harrisburg boy, used his speed to good effect for several Darcy, the Cadets' centre, was a star on the defense, breaking through to block a kick, and also recovered a fumble to start Wen-onah on the road to another score. Sarli, the Drexel Fresh, proved to be the best ball toter for the vis-

McCann Left end Duri
McCann Left end Dugt
Goslin Left guard Kapl
Darey Centre Yanchu
Taucan Taucan
Cornman Right gnard Geggenhein
Dorman right tackle Ki
Mohnall Control of the Control of th
Schnell Right end Donalds
Marka Omerterback
Tighe Left halftmek Altchis
Mittee
Mitten Right halfback C
Rolle Fullback Bal
Drexel P 0 0 0 0
Wesonah 7 6 0 6-Touchdowns, Tighe, Bolig 2. Points af touchdown, Boltz (placement), Substi- tions: McDonald for McCaon, Greenig the Dong thincement! Suce!
medonald for McCaph, Greenig Marks, Brooks for Tighe, Pellini for D man Water and Alexander Leville 101 man, Kauffman for Schnell, Howe for D man. Pariane for Darcy, Concors for Ha Mentall For Kain Vandonool Raber Vanner de Rain, vandrious show. Tarano for Dughle, Bader for Y Baker, Varane for Dughie, Bader for Yochills, Referee, Tripleian, Harvard, U. pire Lineaman, Peddie, Lineaman, Walte Bratana dia Printer Lineaman, wall
Uralous Time, 12-minute quarters.

Georgetown Fresh Down Upper Darby

Haverford in Tie

Score on Bethlehem During Current Season

WENONAH, N. J., Nov. 11.—The Wenonah Military Academy celebrated Armistice Day by turning back the Drexel Fresh eleven, the Drexel Fresh eleven BETHLEHEM, Pa., Nov. 11.-In the mite maestro's mat tourney to South Jersey Cadets winning by a D. grid series, a contest even as future.

19 to 0 score. This was the last heart-stirring and spectacular as Colis Red and Blue of Bethlehem High , against the New York Military was raised to victory this afternoon 27 to 7. Over 4000 fans saw the game in the cold, wind-swept Liberty Stadium.

Figured to be a "breather" for the Bethlehem team previous to its allimportant battles with Phillipsburg. N. J., and Allentown High, the game lived up to expectations in this respect, but provided plenty of excitement for the throng. Long runs, flashy passes were well mixed in the blood-tingling tilt that reached its peak in thrills in the second period, when three touchdowns The victory kept Bethlehem's record of playing 16 games at home and meets his rivals half-way. without a loss over a three-year pe- In the 45-minute semiriod, untarnished, but P. S. D. neatly spoiled Bethlehem's unscored upon home record for this season. Up to this afternoon Bethlehem had not had a single tally tabbed against it at home. against it at home.

Liberty Pos. P. S. D. Kers Left end. Rathawaki Rosenberg Left tackie Douglass Achey Left guard Chrostowski Kresge Centre Golob Matz Right guard McNulley Votral Roght tackle Abolifice J. Burkhardt Right end Powell McIntre Quarterpack Ferrone Richter Right halfback Zabiegolaski Chovan Left halfback Zabiegolaski Chovan Fullback Harris Liberty 6 14 0 7-27 P. S. D. 6 7 0 6 7 Touchdowns McIntyre Chovan 2 J. Fritchman Points after touchdown McIntyre Chovan Centre of the Chovan 2 J. Fritchman Points after touchdown McIntyre Chovan Centre of the Chovan 2 J. Fritchman Points after touchdown McIntyre Chovan Centre of the Chovan 2 J. Fritchman Points after touchdown McIntyre Chovan 2 J. P. S. D. ... Rathawaki ... Donglass ... Chrostowski ... Golob

Fordham Rebound Clips Violet Foe

NEW YORK, Nov. 11 (A. P.) .- After an early fright. Fordham came from far be-Boyas proved just too strong for the from the Quaker City. They lost no a scoring, tallying a touchdown on to Day of the game, when Bob Ferrar yards on the opening kick-off, Ferrar touchdown was accordanced by the same of the same of

With Lansdowne George School Girls Bow to Garnet Foe

Barbara Gross' goal gave Everthmore High a 3 to 2 victory ever George School in a hocker game played at Swarthmore gesterday afternoon.

Botty Murrell avored a goal in the first half and one early in the second session to put Swarthmore in front, but Misses Swayne and Walton came back to score for George School.

Swarthmore H. Pos George S. Mercer Right Inside Swayne MacIntyre Right wing Lachorn MacIntyre Right Hadde Swayne Gross Centre forward Walton Murrell Left maide Johnog Garrett Left wing Banfron Gumeion Right Inthock Pares Marchail Left halfback Pares Marchail Left halfback Pares Incessive Bright Intiback Jennings Food vicel Davet

LeVan Putting Drive in Tiger Machine

Princeton's ferocious Tigers kept their goal line inviolate and their escutcheon unstained, although hard-pressed by Dartmouth yesterday. Garry LeVan, hard-hitting Nassau back, is one of the reasons for the Princeton victory. Above he is shown registering a short but valuable gain for the Jungletowners in the first quarter. Final score was 7-0.

STECHER-COLISANO AIRPORT MAT RIVALS

Scissors Expert and Flashy Young Italian Vie for Chance at Jim Londos

Joe Stecher's hopes for a tiff with Champion Jim Londos may well be blasted to pieces tomorrow night at the Central Airport Arena, when All-Around Work of Tighe Mt. Airy Eleven First to matland's newest youngster, Tony eree. Colisano over the best two out of three falls route.

Stecher's victory over Freddie Grubmier in the last mat show at Grips' grappling citadel places the ex-heavyweight king up a notch in Londos when the latter defends his crown across the river in the near Colisano, a willing youngster in ome game for the Wenonah eleven, the unforgetable 1931 game, the every respect, has been raising heir schedule coming to a conhavoc on the Camden mat, coming through with flying colors in his three starts before South Jersey mat fans. Tony first pinned the shoulders of Floyd Marshall to the mat in jig time and then outwrestled. Wheeler Tone for Bright for Arthurs, Doctor for Bedges, Clink for Jowers, Kenny for Morion, Carpenter for Embry, Hill for Clark, Bennett for Kenny, Officials, Referee W. D. Magimes, Lebish Umpire C. G. Exches W. & J. Lines and H. R. von Kersburg, Barvard, Field indige, E. A. Geiges, Temple, Time of perfect the control of the qualified for his illegal tactics in the roped square. Tony is very confident indeed— in fact, the Springfield tornado believes he will pin Stecher's shoulders to the mat when the two face each other for the first time. Names and reputations mean nothing to this chap, who asks for no quarter Wladek Zybysko, the much-talked-of Pole, will swing into action with Little Beaver, the rough "Injun" from Oklahoma City, as his op-Harry Fields, ex-Haverford College athlete, who scored quite a hit at Grip's last mat party by tossing George Hilles, will face the rugged Floyd Marshall this time out. Dick Lever, a newcomer from Texas, will open the show with Herman Hickman, former Tennessee great, as his vis-a-vis.

Michigan Drive in Ice and Snow Overcomes lowa

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 11 (A. P.).-Herman Everhardus, the flying Dutchman from Kalamazoo, unleashed a toe as true as a navy siege gun and Bill Renner displayed un-canny passing aim today as Mich-igan's powerful football team, playing in snow and ice, swept toward a fourth consecutive Big Ten championship with a hard-earned 10-6 victory over Iowa. The fighting team from the Tall Corn State harvested a well-deserv-ed touchdown early in the third sub Iowa back, that Bernard Page, shifty end, took on Michigan's 13yard line. Capt. Stan Fay, of Michigan, tackled Page as the pass dropped in his arms, but the elusive Hawkeye slipped from Fay's grasp and raced across the goal line. Ted Petoskey smashed through to block Russ Fisher's try for the extra Michigan had scored its 10 points when the Hawkeye counter came. The first score came at the end of the initial period, when Everhardus made good his second try for a field goal. He kicked from the 24-yard line, and the ball sailed true.

The Michigan touchdown came early in the second period, after Renner, whose passing arm proved First downs valuable despite the dangers of a Yards sained rush ..... 144 wet field and occasional snow flur-ries, came into the game. Everhard- Forwards completed ries, came into the game, Everharddus, as-elusive as a banshee, wormed his way through desperate Iowa tacklers for a 47-yard run, from Iowa's 37 to the 16-yard line, where Russ Fisher downed him. Three plays later Renner found a receiver to Contain For measured in the contains and the contain in Captain Fay, uncovered in the end zone. He hurled the ball to Fay, touched. Everhardus' placement was good.

PRINCETON BARELY BEATS GREEN ON 3RD PERIOD PASS

arbenter

Continued From First Page was/often brought down behind the line of scrimmage by fast-moving Green ends who were not afraid to spill the interference. Crisler's men, deprived of their power attack," seemed to lose confidence in themselves and several times took so much time in the huddle trying to decide on plays the famous scissors expert engages that they were penalized by the ret-

could not gain an inch through the stalwart Princeton line and when it tried to turn the ends was only successful on a few occasions.

could not gain an inch through the stalwart Princeton line and when it tried to turn the ends was only successful on a few occasions.

Princeton Misses Chances

In addition to their touchdown the Tigers had two other opportunities to score. In the first period they paraded 65 yards from their own 20-yard line to the Dartmouth 15 before a forward pass was grounded over the Green goal.

Again in the third session, a few backers of the state of the same of the riod they paraded 65 yards from their own 20-yard line to the Dartmouth 15 before a forward pass was grounded over the Green goal.

decision. In his last battle Colisano was handed the nod over Lew Plummer when the latter was disqualified for his illegal testion. Princeton tackles aided considerably by a 15-yard penalty against the Orange and Black, gave them a first down on the Tiger 15-yard mark. Then only 30 seconds remained to play, however, and Mich- despite the many excursions run to elet, Dartmouth left guard, was the game. forced to try a place-kick—which went wild of the uprights. Princeton's lone jaunt to a touchdown was inaugurated on their own 30-yard stripe after Levan had carried back a Dartmouth punt to hat spot. For a moment the fastcharging Dartmouth ends failed to drive in and Levan in two plays made seven yards. Kadlic then surprised the Indians by going into the air. He first hurled a pretty pass to Fair-man good for 10 yards and a first down on the Dartmouth 40. moment later he followed this effort with another, a six-yard heave to Levan. Over-anxious Green tacklers roughed Levan on the The Hanoverians were penalized 15 more yards to their own 20-vard ribbon. Once more Kadlic befuddled the opposition with his strategy. With 99 out of every 100 spectators as well as the entire Dartmouth team expecting a dive at the line, the quarterback faded behind his line of scrimmage and jettisoned a pass to Fairman.

There was nothing deceptive in its execution. The Princeton end merely faked in, then ran out and yards from the goal. He neatly outstepped a Green backfield man, who should have been said man. who should have been awake, and slipped over the line. Dick John then kicked neatly between the uprights for the extra Every one might have left the stadium then and missed nothing. Throughout the entire tilt neither team deviated from the simple

ABC principles of attack. Tigers showed nothing more in the opening game of the season—unless it was the long-used forward, followed by a lateral that did not simple bucks—a sweep at either ond stanza after Debevoise, star end, and frantic final five-minute caught a 20-yard neer the caught a 20-yard neer t aerial attack. Ho-hum!

Princeton Statistics

Ron back of punts, yards., M Own fumbles recovered x-From point where ball was kloked, EAST GERMANTOWN WINE

ENDS TROJAN RUN

That Tiger Snarl

Positions
Left end
Left tackle
Left guard
Centre
Right guard Right tackle
Right end Quarterback
Left halfback
Right halfback

Nassau Notes

By STAN BAUMGARTNER

spectators started to yawn?

Kellam after Galloway intercepted an Amherst pass. Amport converted for the extra and deciding point.

caught a 20-yard pass from Thomas and scampered 15 yards over the goal line. A try for point by Thomas ity team. The Lord Jeffs completed 10 passes to one for Trinity and gained 12 first downs to the visitor's five. The Trinity defense was blocked.

line was threatened.

90,000 See Corbus Kick Two Field Goals in Last Four Minutes

STANFORD TRIUMPH

Continued From First Page

then only four minutes left to play. When he kicked the second there wsa just one minute left for the Trojans to do something about their record and they could not do Stanford was the better team the last three periods.

There was not much to choose between the teams on first downs 10 for the winners to eight for the losers, but the Indians throughout the closing stages of the game seemed very definitely going places and doing things. Stanford completed six passes out of seven attempts and tack had advanced the ball to the shadow of the goal posts. Southern Field California completed six passes in ten attempts for a trifle more yardage than that registered by the visitors, but the co-ordination was not

The game was witnessed by a distinguished crowd including former President Herbert Hoover. Half a PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 11.-The dozen United States Senators and crowd was a distinct disappoint other members of Congress gave ment. Only about 30,000 turned out the political world representation. Babe Ruth, on his way home from Honolulu, represented a companion sport, baseball. Both teams were penalized 163

The 7 to 7 tie at half time did not yards during the 60 minutes. The seem to concern Southern Califor-Tigers were punished for 90 yards, nian partisans greatly, but there was apparent apprehension in the third period.

Corbus Delivers

The most exciting moments of Before the fans had settled back the day occurred after the game in their seats after waving to the former President and Mrs. Hoover was over, when several rooters spent their "bottled" enthusias they crossed the field to greet asm staging an impromptu footthe Stanford rooters, the Indians ball game on the field.

were knocking at the door. Stanford passed and bucked the ball to the Southern California 10-During the intermission taps were ounded by the Princeton Band and yard line, where the Trojans braced all present bared their heads. The for three plays and Corbus tried his Tiger music masters drilled well pefirst field goal. It was low.

ween the halves, forming both The Trojans took the ball, but N-D-I-A-N and a T-I-G-E-R. fumbled almost immediately and Stanford recovered. The period Both Yale and Navy, the Tig-. ended with the Indians on the Troers' future foes, were trounced, jans' 16-yard line. The winning kick was made pos so it appears that the Crisler sible by the speed of Elzo Van Delmen should go through the sealen, a substitute back, who intercepted a Southern California pass and dashed 20 yards to the Tro-There were nine fumbles during jans' 35-yard line. Bones Hamilthe afternoon, four by Princeton and five by Dartmouth—not so good. ton bucked a yard and Boooy Grayson slipped away 12 yards to the 23-yard line. Bob McNeish tossed Grayson for a three-yard loss, Ham ilton lost a yard and then Grayson passed to Alvin Norgard on the 16yard line. Again Corbus tried his

From the 23-yard line the ball sailed between the posts.

There were but four minutes left as Corbus kicked the goal, so South-ern California took the kick-off AMHERST, Mass., Nov. 11 (A. P.). Amherst was given an unexpected and, from the 35-yard line, started defeat today when a fighting Trin- a passing offensive. Homer Grif ity eleven nosed out the Lord Jeffs | fith caught one from Bill Howard 7 to 6. The winning touchdown Grayson intercepted the next one on the Stanford 43-yard line, but was scored in the third period by and ran to midfield.

Jim Moscrip, fleet Stanford end, was used to befuddle the desperate Trojans, and an end-around play got the flank man in the clear and apparently away to a touchdown. He was chased out of bounds, however, on the 13-yard line.

Warburton Scores Three plays took the ball to the Although outscored Amherst had six-yard line and then Corbus a wide edge over the stubborn Trinmoved back to the 13-yard line, and kicked his second field goal, this The Trojans got off to a head start in the first period only to Bill Young Gives tightened, however, when the goal have the Indians overhaul them in the second and stretch out for the intermission all even. A holding penalty against the

SALESIANUM LOSES TO BURR GRIDSTERS

Charley Hahn, Wilmington Quarterback, Injured as Males Go Down, 21 to 0; Victory Gives West Catholic Second Place in Loop of Salesianum's moleskin invaders yesterday when they visited the West Catholic Burr's home field at 44th st. and Parkside ave The Wilmington gridders lost their grip League, bowing to the present champions, 21 to 0. Moreover, Charles Hahn, brilliant quarterback, received a serious head injury and was removed to the Misericordia Hospital Hahn's injury came early in the fray, although he kept it a secret at the time. On the very first play after the kick-off the invaders, hoping to take the starch out of the homesters, put the little 130pound flash into action. He tried to break through the line, but was checked dead in his tracks.

It was not until almost five minutes after this that he walked toward his own bench apparently in a daze. Coach Mike McCall, taka daze. Coach Mike McCall, tak-ing in the lad's condition with a was the whole team after the re-moval of Hahn. He juggled the ball cursory glance, immediately com-mandeered a spectator's car and own 8-yard ribbon. Missar, home-ster centre, smothered the loose

At the end of the contest it was impossible to get a report from the bospital but those who accompations. All Justi, who scintillated all through the game, slipped around nied him were of the opinion that he had sustained either a bad concussion or a possible skull frac-

It was not until Hahn left the game that Burr backs ran rampant send them to inevitable defeat. Lipka, Salesianum halfback, was the first man to err. His fumble of Jimmy Fitzgerald's punt two thrusts by Fitzgerald, Justi and Heiminutes before the first period menz crumbled. Heimenz made the closed was costly. Fitzgerald was standing in mid-field as he spun the oval toward the awaiting 45-yard ribbon. From this point the end on the next play and West Catholic assumed the lead. Heimenz added the extra point just as the period ended.

The Lineup

The Burr score further upset the McCall-coached machine. Before the next chapter had gone very far over a disorganized Salesianum ag-gregtion. Spotty play marked the Johnny McGarry eleven chalkoffense and defense, with fumbles ed up another touchdown with Hei-and poor judgment combining to menz doing the actual scoring and adding the point.

afety man.

The visiting back was rattled, as the Salesianum goal.

TIPS FROM SPORT TICKER By James C. Isaminger

HE total vote against Sunday sports in Philadelphia was 57,740. proving beyond question that the big majority of church-goers want to see Jimmy Foxx hit a homer with the bases full some Sabbath next season.

FAMOUS COMEBACKS Philadelphia,

The final score of the great game of 1933 was 36 to 2. It seems that two Carolina rookies made fumbles in the ninth inning to prevent a shutout.

Carolina: "Hey, nonny nonny, when we meet again let it be in New

LANDIS SHOULD INVESTIGATE

Every major and minor circuit in America voted wet except the Piedmont League of North Carolina.

Whose afraid of the big, bad Blue Law wolf now?

N MONDAYS, Wednesdays and Fridays Mickey Cochrane is sold to the Tigers. On Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays the deal

There is a fast growing sentiment in the Middle West to repeal Coach Hunk Anderson, of Notre Dame.

It now develops that the Cincinnati Reds are owned by a national bank and in its last statement the club was listed among the liabilities because bank examiners are often baseball fans, too.

The Blue Law forces didn't carry a solitary division or ward in Philadelphia. That was the answer of an indignant electorate kept in chains by a minority through the years.

A THREAT BREADON CANNOT IGNORE

Dizzy Dean, the first holdout of winter, has notified Owner Breadon that if he doesn't meet his demands he will go into the real estate bond business, and if not that, the buggy whip business.

While out hunting not long ago Lefty Grove narrowly escaped being frostbitten. That would have meant more frozen assets for NOFESSIONAL football beats the A's and Phillies to Sunday games. Instead of home runs there will be 70-yard runs, and all the passing will be done by backfield men and not wild

Duffy Lehman, the Shibe Park elocutionist, will open Sunday baseball this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when he will bat fungoes to

Why don't you give up, Mister Vare?

There's a faint feeling in the East that these so-called bonedry Mormons of Utah sneak a few when nobody is looking.

The utter failure of the Volstead law makes it clear that the Nation was boner-dry since July, 1919.

Instead of selling, Connie Mack is buying. His latest acquisitions are Radeliff and Detore, two heavy hitters of the American Association.

It was quite fitting that Jack Kelly, famous sculler, should row, row, row his party into the row offices,

Judge McDevitt won Tuesday because he was a triple-threat man. He ran on three tickets,

Palmyra Victory

A holding penalty against the visitors while a Southern California punt was in the air gave the home guard the ball on Stanford's 43-yard line. With another chance made available, Irvine Warburton, diminutive "scooter" of the Trojans, needed but one play to score. Stanford Pos Southern California Westernia y are southernia y and the point of the y are southernia y are southernia y and the southernia y are southernia y ar Dut one play to score

Pos Nouthern California

Left and Ricca
Left fackle Bright
Left guard Rosenberg Riccale (Control Operation)

Right guard Stevens

Right guard Stevens

Right tackle Conghin

Right ond Palmers (Control Operation)

Right for Palmers (Control Operation)

Right for Palmers (Control Operation)

Right for Rosenberg Right (Congress)

Right for Right for Right (Congress)

Temple Soccermen Tie Stevens Tech

Bill Young scored all points to rive Temple's socret team barried to a 2

