

WILL REPRESENT GOUCHER

Delegates Going To Student Conference At Silver Bay.

The delegation from Goucher College to the annual student conference of the Young Women's Christian Association will leave Union Station at 9 o'clock this morning. The convention will be held at Silver Bay, Lake George. The party will stay in New York two days, leaving Monday for Albany by way of the Hudson river. Monday night will be spent at the Young Women's Christian Association in Albany, and on Tuesday the students will arrive at Silver Bay. The conference will continue 10 days.

Every afternoon will be devoted to recreation. Inter-collegiate contests in basketball and tennis are planned. At one of the conferences Miss Katherine Lindsay and Miss Anna Wolf, of Goucher, won the inter-collegiate tennis championship in doubles, and the Goucher College basketball team won second place. This year the students are expected to bring back more laurels, as a number of the best athletes of the college are members of the delegation. Miss Eleanor Carey, who won the tennis championship of Goucher in the open tournament last spring, will enter the tennis tournament at Silver Bay. Miss Ethel Grosscup will enter the swimming and diving contests.

The members of the Goucher delegation are Misses Eleanor Hopkins, president of the Young Women's Christian Association at Goucher; Eleanor Carey, president of the athletic association; Mary Dever, chairman of the summer conference committee; Dorothea Schumacher, chairman of the Isabella Thoburn committee; Ethel Fisher, chairman of the practical service committee; Anna Hutson, Cecilia Roberts, Anna Payne, Flora Sutton, Ethel Grosscup, Lillian House, Emma L. Dulaney, Elsie Cox, Sara Osborne, Kathryn Davison, Elizabeth Brown, Constance Blackstock, Mary Arnold Shanklin, Mary Carleton, Mary Hiss, Lillian Hiss, Marjorie Sawyer and Mary E. Gross.

Misses Jeanette Hoskins and Mary Richardson, of the Girls' Latin School, will go with the Goucher delegation.

Ethel Grosscup to represent Goucher College at Silver Bay, NY YWCA event