

Poolside Fashion Showing Opens Wenonah Swim Club

A pool-side fashion show highlighted the Memorial Day program at the Wenonah Swimming Club as more than 300 members and their guests basked in the warm sun, viewing the season's first event.

Mrs. Anthony Sacca, as commentator for the event, said that the Charming Shoppes of Woodbury was showing the women's garments and Wayne Post, of Wenonah, the men's wear.

Mrs. Ken Albers, a tall, slender brunette, was attired in a new chemise look bathing suit of white polished cotton enhanced with pale blue cross-stitch embroidery at the bustline, down the front and around the box-pleated skirt.

A playsuit made in the "Scottish air" was modeled by teenage Miss Lucy Hill, Tartan plaid fashioned the pleated skorts, sporting its own safety pin and fringed trim. Her blouse was a white broadcloth trimmed with the plaid at the collar and down the front.

Another swimsuit was shown by Mrs. James Lufkin, her slender brunette figure, encased in a sheath model of flame red lastex with lace inserts at bust and hips. The suit was made with straps which can be removed for sunning.

One noteworthy man's outfit was the one worn by Mr. James Hain. He had chosen navy blue washable slacks of dacron and rayon with a gray Irish linen blazer boasting shining brass buttons. A short-sleeved shirt of white broadcloth, and a gray Roman striped tie completed his outfit.

For tennis wear, Mr. Charles Lane showed white cotton gabardine twill hobby shorts with a matching pullover trimmed with a black band at the collar.

Daniel McQuaide, a 10-year-old blond boy, modeled a lustrous cotton zippered sports jacket topping white lastex boxer shorts.

Behind the scenes activities were carried on by Mrs. Edward Kean, Mrs. Hugh McQuaide, Mr. George Bowker, Mrs. Robert DeHart, Mrs. Josiah Park, Mrs. James Savin, Mrs. Anthony Marine, Mr. Harry Schroeder and Mrs. Bryant Langston.

Other club members modeling were Mrs. Richard Alexander, Mrs. Robert Allen, Mrs. James Clark, Mrs. John Davies, Mrs. Roy Fleming, Mrs. Charles Hammell, Miss Nancy Kean, Miss Shirley Kern, Miss Kathy Langston, Miss Doris Ann McQuaide, Mrs. Benson Marks, Mrs. William Morris, Miss Sue Park, Mrs. Robert Puff, Mrs. George Rowe, Mrs. Donald Rowland, Mrs. Richard Schwindeman, Mrs. George Seville, Mrs. Richard Teitsworth, Mrs. Albert Alexander, Mr. Thomas DeHart, Mr. Michael Fleming, Mr. Robert Jenkins, Mr. Frank Lane, Mr. Oram Schuster and Mr. George Seville.
