

Miss Morgan Becomes Bride Of Royal Hassrick in Pitman

Reception Follows Ceremony in M. E. Church; Jane Ralston and Edward R. Grossman Principals in Haddon Heights Ceremony

THE MARRIAGE of Miss E. Barbara Morgan of Pitman, and Royal Hassrick of Overbrook, Pa., and Wenonah, was a fashionable affair held in the Pitman M. E. Church yesterday at four o'clock.

Miss Morgan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Morgan of 144 Cyrus avenue, Pitman. She is a graduate of Pitman High School and is a student at Drexel Institute. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Romanne Hassrick of Overbrook and Wenonah, his mother before her marriage having been Ethel Royal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Belford G. Royal, who made their home in this city for many years before making Wenonah their residence. He is a graduate of Friends Central School, Philadelphia, and has been attending Dartmouth College.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Bratten DuBell, rector of St. Simeons Episcopal Church, Philadelphia, and former rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Pitman. He was assisted by the Rev. Carlton R. VanHook, pastor of the Methodist Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by Miss Sara F. Blount of Philadelphia, as maid of honor. Miss Elizabeth T. Goetsch of Philadelphia, and Miss Bernice E. Kier of Pitman, were bridesmaids and Miss Diana Hassrick, sister of the bridegroom, was a junior bridesmaid.

Allen Kremer of Philadelphia, was best man and ushers were, Pedro Salom, III, of Philadelphia and Charles Swan of Yardley, Pa.

Myrtle C. Eaver, organist of the church, played the wedding march and accompanied William Mason of Overbrook, in vocal solos.

A reception at the Hotel Pitman for members of the immediate families and the bridal party followed the ceremony.

Mr. Hassrick and his bride will be at home after July 15, at Sixty-sixth and Sherwood road, Overbrook, Pa.

Grossman-Ralston

The marriage of Miss Jane Ralston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Ralston of 1051 West High street Haddon Heights, and Edward Raymond Grossmann of 308 Fourth avenue, Haddon Heights, took place yesterday at four o'clock in the First M. E. Church of Haddon Heights.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. O. C. Appar, pastor of the church. John Herbert Heckman played the wedding march and accompanied Ethel Mariner Heckman in vocal solos.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a princess gown of white lace made en train. Her veil of tulle and lace fell from a lace turban trimmed in pearls and shasta daisies.

Mrs. Welton Ruark of Haddon Heights, was matron of honor, while Miss Elva Kuhn and Miss Dorothy Roller, both of Haddon Heights were bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in lace. Mrs. Ruark in peach color with aqua trimmings, the maids in aqua with peach trimming.

The matron of honor carried painted pink daisies and delphinium and the maids, African daisies. All wore leghorn picture hats. The two flower girls, Marie Froehlich and Almira Hart, both of Clementon, wore frocks of organdy, the former in blue, the latter in yellow.

Richard Lindsey of Haddon Heights was best man and ushers included Oliver P. Lambert, J. and Lendon Ruark, also of Haddon Heights.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. Grossmann and his bride left for a motor trip. They will be at home after July 15, at the West High street address.

The bride is a graduate of Glassboro Normal School and the bridegroom of the Pennington School for Boys.
