

Wenonah Votes Today On New School Issue

Wenonah, March 23—A special school election will be held here today to vote on a proposed new $105,000 grade school and financing its construction.

Voting hours are from 2 to 9 p. m. at the American Legion Hall, 6 N. Marion ave.

The resolution to be submitted to voters asks authority to construct the new building on a part of the present school site at Clinton and Elm aves., according to an announcement by Wayne M. Ralston, board of education secretary.

The resolution asks permission to float a $105,000 bond issue for the project.
